

I have three young children and am a single parent. The music and programs on KLove have had a big impact on helping me raise my children. Instead of listening to rap or other music they are now listening to good wholesome music. We need to have Klove on the air. Please understand that in today society we need more family stations and programs. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.